PORTSMOUTH D-DAY MUSEUM TRUST

NORMANDY MEMORIAL WALL

The D-Day landings in June 1944 were the single largest seaborne assault ever undertaken, involving 156,000 Allied soldiers being put ashore with countless sailors and airmen involved on the air and on the sea. By the time the Normandy campaign officially concluded on 21 August 1944, approximately 2,052,300 service men and women had been involved, including nearly 16,000 UK and Canadian killed in action.

The men and women of D-Day hold a special place in the nation's heart and, with your help, they will be honoured and treasured forever at The D-Day Story. To help raise funds for an ongoing education programme in conjunction with the opening of The D-Day Story on Southsea Common, Portsmouth in 2018, a memorial wall has been created on which the names of those who took part, regardless of nationality and arm of service, can be recorded.

Families and relatives of those who took part in the campaign are invited to commission the engraving and installation of a brick bearing the name and unit (regiment, ship or squadron) of the person they wish to honour and remember.

In addition, regiments, Corps, ships and squadrons can also record their participation and sacrifice by having installed their crest or badge on the lower part of the wall.
