

G.D.P.R General Data Protection Regulation

The Spirit of Normandy Trust holds a database of personal contact details which is used primarily to keep people up to date with information relating to the Normandy Landings of 1944, including events, commemorative gatherings, news of veterans and welfare matters. The personal details we hold have been provided by individuals with the express wish that they receive this information from us.

Using these, The Trust keeps veterans families and supporters up to date with information and news which we are sure, and hope is of interest.

The Trust guarantees that personal information of any description that is held by the Trust:-

1) Will never be shared with a third party without the individual's permission being granted

3) No information or details are ever sold to a third party.

3) The Trust does not appeal for funds or market merchandise via email messages

Donations can be made on the website via Just Giving

The secretary will email this information to the database contacts requesting confirmation if they wish to unsubscribe from receiving email news letters and information

This is required by law which comes into effect on 25th May

If you are one of our regular contacts and wish your information to be removed, please CLICK on the email address on the website giving your name and email address and request that your details are deleted.

Website www.spiritofnormandy.org.uk

If you do this remember you will no longer receive future information or news from The Spirit of Normandy Trust

If you have changed your contact details, or we don't have them and you wish us to update the database please CLICK on the address (don't copy and paste) give your name and email address and we will do our utmost to keep you informed. This can be done now or at any time in the future

It is the 75th Anniversary of the Normandy Landings in 2019 which means there will be much information to share, but we are only able to do this efficiently if we are able to contact you direct.
